Fairfield District, Henrico county, was the scene of quite a pretty wedding last evening, when Miss Maggie L. Gainea became the bride of Mr. Floyd H. Parker. Rev. James O. Kirk, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

The church was beautifully decorated with paims, ferns, and potted plants, and was filled with the friends of the contracting parties, the bride, who is a Sunday-school teacher of the church, being especially popular in that section. Mrs. W. J. Peyton presided at the organ. The ushers were Messrs, James T. Gaines, a brother of the bride, and Joseph Taylor. The bride wore a handsome gown of white organdie, with satin ribbons, and carried, a bouquet of roses. After the the Canadians Down the Fight in Three Innings-The General Work the Home Team Good.

Frank Sparks, the quiet, gentlemanly young man who was the star pitcher of the Texas League last season, and who was secured for Richmond this year, pitched a game at Broad-Street Park yesterday afternoon, and the Richmond and entreal clubs and the handful of people who saw the contest are not one bit surprised that he was the star of Texas, and won't be much of a surprise to hear that he is in front when the Atlantic season closes.

He was up against seasoned players, men, most of them, with earned reputations, and it was the first game he had pitched this season. Seven hits were made off his delivery, but they were not bunched, and Montreal might as well not have had them. Frank fairly let himself out, and had the Canadians at his mercy. When the third inning had ended Richmond had eight runs and Montreal none. pitcher to go easy, and he did so.
